

My feeling is that the FCC should encourage, not limit, the proliferation of news services and public service broadcasts on sat radio